Your responsibilities

Any proposal including any additional information supplied or declaration signed by you in connection with this insurance will form part of the agreement between you and us.

It is essential that you provide us with a fair representation of the risks we are accepting when applying for cover. It is also important that you advise your broker, intermediary or the church department of any changes which occur during the period of insurance which may alter information previously provided. If you are in doubt as to whether you need to disclose information to us then this should be declared.

This means you may need to make enquiries with all church officials and advisers to ensure that you have declared all necessary information.

It is essential to keep your residential property in a good condition and take reasonable steps to avoid theft, loss or damage. Your policy is intended to cover you against unforeseen events like fire or theft. It does not cover 'wear and tear' or gradual deterioration such as defective rendering, repointing chimneys or brickwork, general roof maintenance or damp and rot arising from any cause. Areas commonly prone to 'wear and tear' on a building include guttering, flat roofs, fascia boards and boundary walls. These should all be checked on a regular basis.

It is also your responsibility to prove any loss therefore we recommend that you keep receipts, valuations, photographs, instruction booklets and guarantee cards to help with any claim you make.

Changes to your circumstances

Almost certainly your needs will change, if they do, please let your broker, intermediary or the church department know. An updated schedule will be sent to you each time an alteration is made to the cover.

You must tell us of any change of circumstances after the start of the insurance which increases the risk of damage, injury or liability, including any period of unoccupancy for more than 30 days, change in use of the premises or if structural alterations or repairs to the buildings are planned. Please see condition '6. duty of fair representation' on page 12 for more details.

Other changes we need to know about

You must tell us if any person living at the premises has:

- i. been convicted or charged (but not yet tried) for a criminal offence or been given an official police caution;
- ii. ever been declared bankrupt;
- iii. ever been served with any county court judgements (CCJs) or other judgements relating to debt;
- iv. ever entered into any individual voluntary arrangements;
- v. ever been an owner or director of a company which has become insolvent or which has gone into administration.

Cancellation

You may cancel your policy within 14 days from the day of purchase or renewal of the contract or the day on which you receive your policy or renewal documentation, whichever is later.

If you wish to cancel and the insurance cover has not yet commenced, you will be entitled to a full refund of the premium paid. Alternatively, if you wish to cancel and the insurance cover has already commenced, you will be entitled to a refund of the premium paid, less a proportionate deduction for the time we have provided cover.

For more details about cancelling your policy please see condition '8. cancellation' on page 13 for more details.

Principal elements of your policy

The policy consists of the following principal parts:

Claims conditions

Your duties and our rights which define what actions you must take and how we will deal with claims, see page 14.

Conditions which apply to the whole policy

Conditions which affect the way the whole policy operates, see pages 12-13.

Definitions

Explanation of the specific meaning of words which, wherever they appear in the policy, always have the same meaning. Where a word with a specific meaning is used it will be printed in bold type.

Exclusions which apply to the whole policy

Description of events, circumstances or occurrences which are not covered under any part of the policy.

Schedule

This describes who is insured, the location of the premises covered by the policy, the period of insurance, details of the premium and the operative sections. In addition it details the amounts insured by the individual sections, any particular terms and conditions applying and any endorsement(s) or addition(s) amending this policy wording.

Section

This gives precise details of the cover you have chosen subject to any variation by endorsement(s) shown in your schedule or by separate document, together with any specific terms and conditions applying to that section.

Protecting your property

As the owner of a residential property it is important that you keep it in a good state of repair and undertake regular maintenance work to ensure that the property is always safe and fit for occupancy. Buildings in a sound condition will withstand all but the most extremes of weather and by taking a few sensible precautions you can protect your property. You may wish to consider the following preventative measures; this is not a definitive list, you must ensure that your legal obligations as the owners of the property are complied with at all times.

- i. Notify the occupant of their responsibility to keep the property in good condition.
- ii. Visually check the condition of the roof of your property including any outbuildings. Flat roofs have a limited lifespan and should be checked regularly for signs of damage.
- iii. Ensure gutters, gullies and drains are cleared regularly.
- iv. Cut back low hanging tree branches or bushes which could cause damage in high winds.
- v. Place reliable smoke alarms within the property and ensure that these are regularly tested.
- vi. Place fire extinguishers in the property.
- vii. Ensure that electrical wiring faults are assessed and repaired by a qualified electrician.

- viii. Regular inspection and cleaning of chimney flues to prevent fires.
- ix. Ensure that the boiler and heating system are regularly serviced at least once a year by a registered professional.

Unoccupied manse

If a manse becomes unoccupied for whatever reason, please contact your intermediary or the church department at Congregational. Reduced cover may apply and additional terms and requirements will be added to your policy. This will vary depending on your circumstances; more specific details will be given once notification has been received.

An unoccupied residential property may become vulnerable to damage. There is a greater risk of theft, malicious damage, fire and water damage as well as squatters breaking in. You can take some simple steps to help prevent this damage by ensuring that the building continues to be well maintained and secure. Consider the location - is the building isolated or secluded? What is the crime level in the area? Would any neighbours be willing to check the property regularly? You may need to consider additional precautions if you feel there are increased hazards.

In the first instance you may wish to contact your broker or intermediary, alternatively contact the claims department at Congregational.

You can download a claim form and find further guidance notes on submitting your claim at: www.congregational.co.uk

Conditions that apply to the policy in the event of a claim are set out in this policy booklet (see page 14). It is important that you comply with all policy conditions and you should familiarise yourself with any requirements.

To make a claim you are required to provide evidence and reasonable assistance regarding the cause and value of any claim.

- If the damage is extensive i.e. fire or flood, please contact your broker, intermediary or the claims department as soon as possible during office hours on 01274 700 700, in order that a loss adjuster can be appointed. The adjusters will normally contact you the same day to make an appointment.
- If emergency temporary repairs are necessary to protect your property or prevent further damage please proceed as soon as possible and submit the appropriate invoices. Please note we will only pay these costs if you have a valid claim.
- Do not dispose of any damaged property as it may be necessary for it to be inspected.
- For damage to, or theft of contents please send original receipts where possible for the items and/or estimates for replacements.
- Depending on the nature of your claim we may need to appoint a supplier or loss adjuster to assist with the validation and settlement of the claim.
- Complete a claim form and send it to us with any estimates, accounts and supporting documentation.
- If your claim relates to liability you must not admit any liability. Contact Congregational immediately if anyone makes a claim upon you and send any writ or summons, unanswered.

Inflation protection

We will adjust the sums insured in line with an appropriate price index.

We will not charge you for increases, nor repay you for any decreases, made to the sums insured as a result of index-linking but at the end of each period of insurance the renewal premium will be based on the adjusted sums insured.

In the event of a claim, index-linking will continue from the date of the damage to the time of the resulting claim being settled, up to a maximum increase in sums insured of 20% from the date of the damage. However, we will not pay for increased costs which arise due to unnecessary delay on your part.

Law applicable to the policy

Unless we and you have agreed otherwise in writing this policy shall be governed and construed in accordance with English Law unless the premises are located in Scotland in which case Scottish Law shall apply.

More than one premises insured

If more than one premises is insured under this policy the terms, conditions, exclusions and limitations of the policy apply separately to each premises as if each were insured by a separate policy.

No claims discount

If you have had one or more claims free years on this policy, or on a previous policy, you will be eligible for a discount shown on the undernoted scale. The discount will be increased automatically up to the maximum after each consecutive claim free year. If a claim is made under any section the discount reduces by two years (10%) per claim.

The amount (%) of your discount is shown in your schedule.

No claims discount

Claims free years	0	1	2	3	4	5
Discount	0%	5%	10%	15%	20%	25%

Value added tax (VAT)

When calculating your sums insured you should include VAT to the extent that you have to pay it. Individual circumstances dictate whether or not repair work following damage is zero-rated but it is highly likely that most repair work will attract VAT at the standard rate. You should consult your professional advisers or HM Revenue & Customs if you require advice on VAT. Sums insured can be affected considerably by VAT. A possible consequence of calculating them incorrectly could be that claims payments might be reduced because of the operation of average (see section 1 - property damage, clause 4 on page 24).

Secure technology and procedures are used to help protect your information from inappropriate use and these will be revised and updated as new technology becomes available. The underwriters and Integra Insurance Solutions Ltd, as the administrators, may use your information for underwriting purposes, statistical analysis, management information, market research, risk management and testing to ensure the integrity of systems. Your information will only be shared where required or allowed to do so by law.

If you or anyone acting on your behalf makes a claim under the policy knowing the claim to be false or fraudulent in any way, or, knowingly provides inaccurate or misleading information (verbal or written) in support of the claim, we:

- i will not pay the current claim and may recover the cost of any claim payments made in advance of the discovery of the fraudulent act;

If such other insurance is subject to any condition of average, this policy (if not already subject to any condition of average) shall also be subject to average.

5. Special conditions

We will not pay a claim if you fail to comply with any special condition stated in the policy if such failure causes damage or increases the likelihood of damage.

It is your responsibility to make a fair representation of the information required by us to provide the insurance under this policy.

This duty applies at the start of the insurance contract and continues throughout the period of insurance. You must tell us of any change in circumstances that may increase the risk of damage, injury or liability including but not restricted to:

- i closure, vacation (including partial vacation) or demolition of the premises;
- ii change in use of the premises;
- iii structural alterations or repairs to the buildings (other than contractors carrying out minor repairs, alterations and general maintenance on the premises providing they do not use scaffolding);

In order to ensure that a fair representation has been made you may need to make enquiries with other officials of the insured and your advisers.

Where there is a deliberate or reckless misrepresentation or non-disclosure of relevant information the policy will be treated as void and of no effect from that date and no return of premium will be allowed.

Where such misrepresentation or non-disclosure is not deliberate or reckless but would have affected our consideration of the risk, we may take the following actions with effect from the date of the misrepresentation or non-disclosure:

- i if we would not have provided insurance on any terms, we will treat the policy as void and of no effect and we will return the amount of any premiums paid from that date;
- ii if we would have entered the contract but at an additional premium we have the right to reduce any claim payment in proportion to the amount of the underpayment; and/or

Where this occurs an award must be made by the arbitrator before legal proceedings can be commenced against us.

You may cancel your policy within 14 days from the day of purchase or renewal of the contract or the day on which you receive your policy or renewal documentation, whichever is later. This is known as the cooling off period.

Alternatively, if you wish to cancel and the insurance cover has already commenced, you will be entitled to a refund of the premium paid, less a proportionate deduction for the time we have provided cover.

If the policy is not cancelled within the cooling off period, it will continue in force and you will be required to pay the premium.

You may cancel the policy at any time after the cooling off period, in which event a proportion of the premium may be returned to you. Any return of premium will depend on whether any incident giving rise to a claim occurs during the period of insurance and on how long the policy has been in force.

You may cancel the policy by contacting your broker, intermediary or the church department.

If the premium for this policy is payable by instalments it is a condition that each instalment is paid by the due date otherwise we have the right to cancel the policy with effect from the date when such instalment falls due.

In circumstances other than non-payment of instalments we may cancel the policy or any section of it by sending seven days notice by recorded delivery to you at the last known correspondence address. We shall refund to you the unused portion of the premium paid.

You cannot make a claim for an event that occurred after the date the policy was cancelled, but cancelling the policy will not affect your right to claim for an event that occurred before the date the policy was cancelled.
